Frank del Olmo: Commentaries on His Times

As a Los Angeles Times columnist, Frank del Olmo was known for his clear-headed analysis of hardball issues such as politics, education, labor and immigration, as demonstrated in this book. Then, in the final decade of his life, a new dimension emerged in his columns: The compassionate father of a young son, Frankie, dealing with autism. Del Olmo, a CCNMA founder and a board member for more than 30 years, died of a heart attack in 2004. In addition to his role as a columnist, he was the first Latino to be promoted to The Times' masthead of top editors. This book offers 90 of his most memorable columns, including his 1994 commentary in which he dissented from The Times' re-election endorsement of Pete Wilson, citing the governor's "cynical" use of the divisive Proposition 187. A selection of photos features some early CCNMA events. Through a generous donation of the books by the Los Angeles Times, which published it, the book is now available through CCNMA. Proceeds of sales benefit the Frank del Olmo Memorial Scholarship Fund. Your donation may be tax deductible. Prices: $30 hard cover, $20 soft cover.

•Price includes shipping and handling. For shipments to Alaska, Hawaii and Puerto Rico an additional $3.00 freight surcharge per order will be added to the above charges.
